

RWE Transgas, a.s.

:job news

Internal vacancy information

■ Analyst, Structuring

Division: Purchase Portfolio Management
Supervisor/Governing body: Senior manager
Workplace location: Prague 10
Commencement of employment: immediately

Job description:

Quantitative and qualitative analysis of energy transactions
Valuation of transactions and reporting
Design of optimal contractual structures
Support to risk management procedures (risk analyses and reporting)
Support to development of evaluation/optimization tools

Job requirements:

Educational attainment: University degree in economics/statistics, graduates welcome

Employment history: At least theoretical understanding of business issues relevant for European energy and/or financial markets
Basic understanding of legal documents (contracts, energy legislation)

Languages: Fluent English (written + spoken) is a necessary condition. Knowledge of German is highly appreciated.

PC skills: advanced PC skills (MS-Office)
Basic knowledge of VBA programming and/or prediction/simulation/optimization tools is an advantage.

Other: Abstract and analytical thinking
Entrepreneurial attitude
Willingness to learn
Communication skills
Ability to work in international team
Readiness to travel

Please send your application together with your attached CV to:
veronika.havrankova@rwe.cz
