

Erasmus+ International Credit Mobility

Epoka University, Tirana

The Institute of Economic Studies announces a call for application for study abroad scholarships at Epoka University, Tirana, Albania in Spring semester 2021/2022.

Before submitting all the necessary documents, please fill-in the online application:

E-Application

The valid application must contain the following documents:

- Application
- CV (including applicant's e-mail and phone number)
- Motivation letter – applicants should explain why they are interested in the study exchange and how they expect to benefit from it
- Specific study plan at Epoka University
- Transcript of study results from the SIS and a total grade point average

Applicants must send all the requested documents electronically in one zipped file to PhDr. Lenka Šťastná, Ph.D, lenka.stastna@fsv.cuni.cz no later than October 24, 2021.

Terms of Study: Students do not pay any tuition. Students are expected to cover all their costs by themselves using scholarship of euro 700 per month. Furthermore, students will get one-off allowance for their travel cost of euro 275. Immediately after the end of the stay, the requested documents must be delivered to the International Office.

Information about the program at the FSV website is here, or in English here. Information about Epoka University is available here. The list of programs with course offer can be found here.