

Pipedrive is the first CRM platform made for salespeople, by salespeople. In 2010, our co-founders set out to build a customer relationship management (CRM) tool that helps users visualize their sales processes and get more done.

We are also a global company known for our culture. Pipedrivers believe that great people can achieve great things together, which is best summed up by six company values.

In 2020, Vista Equity Partners, a leading global investment firm that invests exclusively in enterprise software, data, and technology-enabled businesses, made a majority investment in Pipedrive. This investment and the continued support of our customers will help us accomplish our goal.

Pipedrive Office in Prague

Founded in September 2018, our Prague office now employs 35+ people, including software engineers, product managers, designers, and more. Our crew is always getting bigger, but we all work toward one goal: to make sales success not only possible but inevitable for teams everywhere. Pipedrivers not only work hard but play hard as well. Slippers and office saunas are also important to company culture.

Our tech stack: JavaScript / TypeScript (React & Node)

We look forward to hearing from you!
